President Uncertain On Request Of Congress For Debt Altering Power

By GEORGE R. HOLMES

WASHINGTON, May 11.—If the existing foreign debt agreements are to be revised downward—as Europe hopes—then the debtors must themselves take the initiative and approach the United States individually with definite propositions.

The Roosevelt administration is prepared to listen and to consider, but beyond that point there is as yet no outlined policy. President Roosevelt has not yet decided whether to ask congress for any additional powers to deal with the debtors. His advisers are divided upon the desirability of such a move.

Discusses Problem.

The president discussed the debt problem "fully and frankly" with Premier Ramsay MacDonald and Edouard Herriot, the French envoys, but their conversations are understood to have embraced only the broadest aspects of the difficulties inherent in the situation. The visit—(Continued On Page Two)

Heavy Storm Damage Is Being Repaired

Residents of East Brook, Lakewood, Harlansburg and the other settlements in the north and east-ern parts of the county are busy to-day repairing the damage wrought by the hail storm on Tuesday night. Windows are being replaced with new lights of glass, roofs are being patched where it is possible to patch them, and in many cases new roofs are being put on.

From reports coming in to The News from that section of the county it appears that few farm buildings escaped the storm's damage. The only roofs that seemed to with-stand it were double slate roofs, and even these were chipped and torn in some instances.

The farm of Frank De Salvo of near East Brook was one that was particularly hard hit by the storm. Almost all the windows in the house were broken and roof coverings were riddled by the hail.

In the Lakewood district cottage owners are endeavoring to get new roof coverings on today, many of them replacing coverings that were put on last August. John Rung, owner of the resort park at Lake-wood, is covering some of the build-ings and filling depressions with tar on others.

Young Woman In Chicago Suicides

Leap Out Of 23rd Story Win-dow Is Climax To An-cient Love Triangle

DENTIST HELD BY OFFICIALS

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, May 11.—After reveal-ing the dramatic story of a love tri-angle that ended in suicide, Dr. Maurice M. Restell was held to-day for the inquest into the death of Miss Rebecca Roche, pretty honor graduate of Northwestern Univer-sity.

Miss Roche, 25 years old, ended her life by leaping from the 23rd story office of Dr. Restell, the man she loved, less than an hour after she had faced the dentist and his wife in an effort to solve their prob-lem. His wife, Dr. Restell told police, had offered to give up her husband in favor of Miss Roche, but he de-clined.

Mrs. Restell had spent the night before the tragedy in the dentist's office with her rival to prevent the girl from carrying out her threat to leap to death.

Dr. A. C. Roche of Calumet, Mich., father of the dead girl, arriving for the inquest, said he received a tele-gram today for Elco, about three miles upstream, to aid in the search for the bodies of three youths who drowned in the Monongahela river yesterday when their rowboat up-set.

The victims were Roy Crouch, 18; his brother, Roymond, 17, and John Mantus, 15, all of Stockdale. It was reported that waves from a passing barge upset the rowboat, plunging the youths into the water.

Leaders Study New Proposal By President

Roosevelt Presents Precedent Shattering Proposal On Business Control

WOULD REGULATE ALL COMMERCE

Procedure Would Mark An Amazing Venture On Part Of Government

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 11.—A precedent shattering proposal by President Roosevelt for federal control of business and industry, thru the government's constitu-tional power of taxation, was studied today by admin-istration leaders on Capitol Hill.

The president favored federal regulation of all commerce, intra-state as well as inter-state, in order to spur the economic recovery of business and industry. He believed this could be achieved, not by invoking the constitutional power of congress to regulate inter-state commerce, but by imposing a national process-ing or occupational tax on all indus-try and then exempting such units as voluntarily carry out the govern-ment's program for economic re-covey.

Amazing Venture.

This procedure for regulating business would mark an amazing venture on the part of the federal government.

The president would use the tax-ing process to benefit both labor and owners. The program would set up a federal business control board to negotiate trade or labor agreements in each industry.

Labor would be benefitted by agreements to shorten the work week, to improve working conditions, to eliminate child labor and to fix minimum scales of wages. Owners would be helped by agreement to fix a minimum sale price on a commod-ity, to eliminate price wars and in-fluential competition.

Under the president's plan, if a majority of the units in an industry adopted one of these agreements, the federal government would help to impose it on the entire industry. By exempting from a new federal (Continued On Page Two)

School Board Delays Action On Exonerations

Personal Tax Exoneration List Is Laid Aside At Meeting Last Night

HYDE SAYS LIST SHOULD BE SCANNED

Declares List Contains Names Of Many Who Should Pay The Claims

Tax liens for seated and unseated lands which have been filed with the county commissioners by School Tax Collector L. W. McClung were reported to the New Castle school board Wednesday night, and ex-oneration of uncollected taxes asked for by Mr. McClung.

The total uncollected tax on seated lands which has been filed with the county commissioners amounts to $218,448.93. The total taxes on unseated lands which have been filed amount to $9,296.27. The total list of uncollected personal taxes for which exoneration is asked amounts to $61,035.14.

Wants To Investigate.

When the exoneration of the per-sonal taxes came before the board A. C. Hyde said that in his opinion the board should hold a special meeting and investigate the list.

"It seems to me that this is un-usually high," said Mr. Hyde. "Where a man cannot pay his prop-erty tax it is filed against him and some day is paid. Where we ex-onerate personal taxes the chances are that we will never get it at all.

"There are many many names on the list of exonerations who are property owners. Many of them that I see on the list can pay their personal taxes and should be made to pay them. I do not want to vote for exoneration of all these taxes until I am convinced that they can-not be collected. Further, we have just paid $3,000 on the tax collec-tor's bond and we ought to try and get as much of that back as we can."

The board took no action on ex-onerations, and no action was nec-essary upon the report of tax liens filed with the county commissioners.

Gaston B. Means Asserts He Knows Who Kidnaped The Lindbergh Baby

Crowded Courtroom In Washington Is Thrilled As Means Offers Testimony

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Gaston B. Means, whose bizarre career has covered a wide range of criminal ac-tivities, gave a crowded courtroom some thrills to-day by asserting under oath that he knew who kidnaped the Lindbergh child, the cause of its death, and where all the money that figured in the transaction went.

Bald and beaming, the puggy Means took the witness stand in his own defense against charges of con-spiring to defraud Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean of $35,000, in addi-tion to the $100,000 which he secur-ed from her on his promise to re-turn the child. Means is now serv-ing a 15 year term in Atlanta for the $100,000 fraud.

With him on trial, is Norman T. Whitaker, disbarred attorney, who acted as an accomplice.

Refused To Help

The first two names Means brought into his long narrative af-ter his attorney told him to tell the court "the whole story" were those of Irving Fenton, a man whom he said he first met while he was in Atlanta penitentiary, and a man by the name of Wellington Henderson. Henderson, he explained, was a man he (Means) was looking for in his investigation work in connection with communist activities of the so-called third international.

Means said Fenton told him in "Larry Jones" place at 277 West Broadway, New York, that he and (Continued On Page Two)

NEW YORK, May 11.—Police and detectives searched today for the killer or killers of Edward A. Rid-ley, aged and eccentric multi-mil-lionaire real estate man, and his secretary, Lee Weinstein.

In that same cellar two years ago Herman Moeckel, then Ridley's sec-retary, was shot to death by a killer who never was apprehended.

The most promising clue was the statement by Ridley's cousin, Miss Anna Ridley, of Brooklyn, who de-clared that the aged recluse had been the target of threatening let-ters for more than two years.

PLANS CONSOLIDATION OF SCHOOL DISTRICTS

Dr. Jas. N. Rule Planning Move

Believes Every School District Should Have At Least 1000 Students

OTHER CHANGES IN SCHOOL STATUTES

By WILLIAM J. KELLY
International News Service Staff

HARRISBURG, May 11.—Satisfied that the general assembly passed sufficient legislation to keep Pennsylvania's public schools open during the next biennium, Dr. James N. Rule, superintendent of public instruction, today pledged a renewal of his efforts for consolidation of school districts.

Defeat of the proposed new school code early in the past session served only to convince the superintendent that the present district system, set up in 1834, eventually must go.

"I propose to continue a study of the consolidation of school districts in Pennsylvania in co-operation with school directors and superintendents with a view to having recommendations at the next regular session," Dr. Rule said. "The 2,587-district system, established to meet the 'horse and buggy' conditions of a century ago is dilapidated.

Should Have 1,000 Students

"It is my belief that no district should have less than 1,000 students. Approximately 1,000 districts now have less than that figure."

The defeated code would have merged the 2,587 districts into 500. Dr. Rule estimated such a revision would have resulted in an annual saving of approximately $2,500,000 on the non-instruction side alone.

To assure favorable support for his 1935 code, Dr. Rule plans to have the regrouping by local agencies. The recommendations will be made after careful study by officials of the public instruction department in conjunction with county educational associations and superintendents.

"The 1933 assembly," Dr. Rule continued, "produced a constructive program for carrying schools through the next two years on a somewhat restricted basis."

He displayed interest in the Corrier bill, which rests on Gov. Gifford Pinchot's desk. This legislation, which appropriates $5,000,000 from the motor license fund for use of distressed districts, must be signed, it is Dr. Rule's opinion. Its veto will mean that some schools will be forced to close because $53,000,000 set aside for aiding needy districts is inadequate. He asserted. The money would have to be repaid to the motor fund at some future time, not specified in the bill.

Reduces Assistant Superintendents

Dr. Rule also regarded the two Wilson bills as important economy measures. The governor has approved one, cutting teachers' salaries 10 per cent and permitting the superintendent of public instruction to sanction additional reductions for just cause. The other, as yet unsigned, reduces the number of assistant county superintendents from 118 to 77 and decreases the pay of all superintendents by 10 per cent.

Other measures he regarded as significant are the Mansfield and Williamson bills which await the governor's action. The former authorizes school districts to sell bonds up to 80 per cent of their uncollected taxes with ten years for repayment. The Williamson bill would amend the school code by providing an optional measure for consolidation of school districts on a small scale.

LEADERS STUDY NEW PROPOSAL BY PRESIDENT

tax, either on processing of the article or for occupational purposes those units which carried out the agreement.

Rouses Constitutional Issues

The immediate fate of the plan rested upon constitutional issues. Never before has the federal government undertaken to regulate interstate commerce through imposing of a processing tax. It has imposed inspection taxes and it has regulated interstate commerce, but it failed to stamp out child labor because its effort was held to be an interference with intra-state commerce.

The president submitted his views, along with several other plans for regulating industry, to congressional leaders at a series of conferences in the White House. He suggested that a new public works act be attached to the regulatory bill, with provisions not only for federal, state and municipal projects but for extending aid to private industry in expanding construction work.

DEBTOR NATIONS MUST PROPOSE DEBT CHANGES

tors proposed no specific plan of settlement, so far as is known, and neither did the president.

It is now expected, however, that the debtors will take advantage of the London economic conference to re-open the problem in detail, and with specific suggestions. The American delegates will be prepared to listen, but not to act. Every day pertaining to the debt will be forwarded to Washington, where the president, and in the final analysis, congress, must be the deciding.

Conference Nearing

This is the situation respecting the debts at the moment, with the London conference only a month away.

As to the June 15 payments, the administration is proceeding on the assumption they will be paid. The last authoritative word on the matter from the White House was an authorized statement:

"We expect the June 15 payments to be made."

Whether the expectation of payment is real is a matter of conjecture. Administration officials decline to go behind the flat statement.

Big Payment

The June payments aggregate $143,605,294, principal and interest. Of this amount $75,560,000 is due from Britain, $40,739,568 from France and $13,545,438 from Italy. France already is in default of the $19,000,000 due last December.

The debtors can, if they choose, obtain approximately 30 per cent reduction in their payments by taking advantage of the Thomas amendment to make their payments in silver. This new law provides acceptance of up and including $200,000 in silver at a price of 50 cents an ounce. As silver is now selling around 36 cents an ounce it would be good business for them to do so. All of the June payments could be made in silver.

MEANS STARTLES COURT, KNOWS OF LINDBERGH CASE

some others were planning a kidnapping. Fenton asked him to come into the kidnapping as a "contact man" Means added, and he refused. He said he asked Fenton then if he knew the whereabouts of Henderson and was informed that Fenton had told him Henderson was "down in New Jersey" and was connected with the kidnapping plot. This Means continued was on February 17 or 18 of last year, approximately two weeks before the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby.

Talked With Suspect

Means told he had several additional talks with Fenton and that Fenton left New York on February 22, returning two days later. On February 26, Means continued, he said he returned to Washington and on March 2 read in the papers of the kidnapping.

Several days after the kidnapping when nothing developed to indicate Lindbergh might get his baby back, Means went on, he took his story to an ex-judge Marion De Vries in Washington and asked him if in some manner he could get authority to work on the case so that he (Means) would not be suspected by authorities.

He said De Vries told him to get in touch with Fenton right away and that he went straight to a post office and wrote Fenton a letter asking him to come to Washington immediately.

Called To White House

After this, Means continued, he returned to his home and told his wife what he had done. He said he asked his wife if she knew anyone who might be valuable under the circumstances and she named a Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fleming. Mrs. Means called the Flemings on the phone and Fleming came by to see Means the same night, March 4.

He said Fleming told him he knew Col. Robert Guggenheim very well and that Guggenheim was a good friend of Lindbergh. Fleming, he said, then put in a telephone call to Guggenheim and made a tentative appointment between Means and himself. After this Means said he received a mysterious call from the telephone company and was asked to call the White House immediately.

Call Unexplained

Means did not explain the mysterious White House call at this point but diverted to other tangents.

Mrs. McLean, whom Means was convicted of swindling out of $104,000 and now is charged with entering into the case at this point. Means said Mrs. McLean telephoned him and he went to see her.

After a number of conferences with her, the witness said, he met Capt. Land (now Rear Admiral Emory Land, a cousin of Mrs. McLean and that Land agreed to get authority for him to work on the case from Col. Lindbergh.

Fenton and Henderson were brought into the case again at this point. Means said that several days after he wrote Fenton, he received a telephone call from him at 8 p. m. and Fenton said he was in Washington. Means continued:

Talked About Baby

"I asked Fenton to meet me in front of 200 Massachusetts avenue (Mrs. McLean's home) and then called Mrs. McLean and told her I would come to see her in 20 minutes."

"I talked to Fenton outside of the house before I went inside. I asked him if he had located Henderson. He said he had and that Henderson was in New Jersey. Then he said: 'Have you seen all that stuff in the papers about the Lindbergh kidnapping?'

"I said 'yes'."

Fenton said:

"We are in a devil of a fix. Instead of getting to bed, Lindbergh is on the ground on every side. Every inch of his grounds is covered by investigators and officials. Do you know how to get rid of the child right away?'

Wanted Immunity

"I said I might know and said I was going into Mrs. McLean's house and meet a relative of Lindbergh. Fenton asked me to find out if I could provide immunity for him if the baby was returned at once. I said I would go inside the house at once and find out. He was to call me later. I then went into Mrs. McLean's home and met Captain Land."

The court was adjourned for five minutes at this point. Every inch of standing room in the court was packed with spectators and they all hung breathlessly on Means' every word. He was interrupted only once in his testimony, when District Attorney Rover asked him for the correct spelling of Fenton's name. The jury was leaning forward as one person, and a pin could be heard dropping in the courtroom. Means showed no disposition whatever to hurry and talked in an easy, conversational tone, frequently going into asides to give the reasons for this or that movement or operation.

Checked Career

Prior to beginning his story of the kidnapping, the witness outlined a checked career for the record, which included an upbringing in the comfortable surroundings of Concord, N. C., where he was born. After preparatory school, private tutoring and graduation from the University of North Carolina, the witness said he went into investigation work.

Smith Reynolds, the now dead husband of the torch singer, Libby Holman; the German, British and Mexican governments and various well-known figures in American and foreign life, were named in glib order as those who employed the amazing Means for investigation work at various times.

Trussell Enters Denial Of Charge

Presents Statement In Connection With County Coal Hauling Controversy

In a statement made to The News today, W. N. Trussell, of 610 Ray street, takes issue with a statement made by County Commissioner P. O. Elder concerning him, at the meeting held Tuesday afternoon in the court house, when affidavits were presented in the case of Mark Butler superintendent of the county coal fields.

The statement of Mr. Trussell follows:

To the public and taxpayers of Lawrence county:

I wish to correct a statement made by P. O. Elder, county commissioner, to the taxpayers committee and their attorney on the Mark Butler case and which has appeared in the May 10 issue of The New Castle News.

Mr. P. O. Elder contends that I, W. N. Trussell, put in 27 tons of coal at the poor farm when I had been contracted to put in only 10 tons. In the first place there was no contract. No specific amount of coal had been mentioned at. I was to fill the bins. This was the order as given me by Mr. Conners by phone. And it took all of 27 tons to fill them.

Now, insofar as the court house is concerned, I would like to make it clear to the taxpayers of Lawrence county and to Mr. P. O. Elder as well, that I did not contract with the commissioners to deliver any coal there. The contract had been given to another party, and what I had hauled to the court house was for this party, as I had my order from him.

P. O. Elder is penalizing me because I gave the taxpayers committee a statement of Mark Butler's case. Mr. Elder has no cause for being angry at me as I have paid Butler all that I could afford to pay him out of my earnings at the county coal fields. Mr. Elder said to the reporter of The News and the taxpayers committee that I can not get any more work from the county. If I am penalized and discriminated against for telling the truth, I will have to put up with it as I don't have any more money to pay jobs with.

LEAGUE WRESTLES WITH PROBLEM OF WAR DECLARATION

Bolivia this morning requesting league intervention. Cables are now being prepared urging both parties to resort to hostile activities.

Argentina Neutral

Buenos Aires, May 11.—With Argentina pledged to strict neutrality and Chile and Brazil taking the same attitude, declaration of war by Paraguay will have little effect on the Chaco conflict, officials predicted today.

Formal declaration of hostilities against Bolivia was made by Paraguay for the announced purpose of "enabling our neighbors to take up definite positions."

The warfare is now being carried on over a broken front in the Chaco jungle, disputed between the fighting nations for fifty years.

Both armies are reported well entrenched but are short of supplies.

While it is impossible to estimate the strength of the forces, it is known that Bolivia has lost 4,000 dead and 9,000 wounded.

Paraguay's losses are estimated at two-thirds of Bolivia's.

From Crutches to Wings

Crippled by paralysis when he was two years old, Arthur Sussman, now eleven, is shown as he was placed aboard the airplane "Roosevelt" at Roosevelt Field, New York, for his first flight. The name "Roosevelt" seems to be bound up with Arthur's life, for President Roosevelt donated a quantity of his blood to the boy in 1930. At left, holding Arthur's crutches, is Pilot Swanne Taylor and at right is Don Carney, of radio fame.

Roosevelt Plans To Temper Cuts Of Disabled Veterans

General Hines Asked To Review Schedules Of "Line Disabilities"

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 11.—President Roosevelt moved today to temper the compensation cuts he had imposed on World War veterans whose disabilities could be traced directly to their service during the period of conflict.

Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, the veterans' administrator, was under orders to review the schedules of "line disabilities" so as to "effect more equitable levels of payment." In ordering this review the white house was making good its promise that the original slash of ex-service men's pensions was experimental and would be revised if proof was furnished that undue hardships accrued.

Martin-Pinchot Controversy On

General Ed. Martin Sticks
To Undelivered Paragraph In Speech

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, May 11.—General Edward Martin, today, Republican state chairman, today, "stood by" an undelivered paragraph of a speech in which "a prominent Pennsylvania woman" was criticized for parading in a "flaming red costume" with strikers.

When Martin addressed an American Legion conference at Scranton yesterday he said nothing about a woman in red, and at first repudiated the remarks attributed to him in stories published throughout the state.

The paragraph in question, universally interpreted as referring to Cornelia Bryce Pinchot, wife of Governor Gifford Pinchot, was contained in typewritten "excerpts from the remarks by General Edward Martin" handed by a publicity man to newspapermen at the capitol. Later General Martin decided to "stand by" the typed copies, although he explained he thought references to the woman in red were "out."

Mrs. Pinchot Comments
The incident was followed by this comment from Mrs. Pinchot: "Poor General Martin! I said last (Tuesday) night that he was a man afraid of his shadow and incapable of leadership. I didn't know then that he was afraid of children in sweatshops nor that he trembled before the color of a woman's dress. (Mine, by the way, happened to have been dark mulberry and not flaming red, as he said.)

"Such errors must be most embarrassing to a soldier."

CHILD PUNISHMENT HELD UNNECESSARY

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND — Mrs. Garry C. Myers, child expert of Cleveland College here, would correct the old phrase, "Spare the rod and spoil the child," to bear the import that it is not at all necessary to inflict corporal punishment on children.

"If children feel happy when they do the right thing, they will repeat that right thing," she asserted. "Parents' attitudes have a great deal to do with children in their training. If they are encouraged by a smile or a word of commendation for doing the right thing they will want to repeat the thing which brings satisfaction. I don't think whipping is necessary."

Hospital Aide Society Here Does Big Things

Unlike Many Organizations, Jameson Memorial Society, Does Real Work

INVITE WOMEN TO JOIN ITS RANKS

Time was when Hospital Aid Societies were organized essentially for the purpose of public contact for the hospital and social attraction of society members. Meetings were held from time to time and meetings were spent in hand sewing some baby clothes, mending up the tattered fragments of seemingly carelessly mislaid lives from among the hospitals linen population. If there were not enough of worn out linens to go around, hands were busied in folding gauze into sponges for hospital use. Tea and cakes might be served—and "a nice time was had by all."

Such Hospital Aid Societies still exist. There is no doubt of their sincerity of purpose and desire in such activity. As a contribution to the community's economy, however, such expense of useful and spirited human abilities is of such doubtful public benefit as to border on waste.

The Jameson Memorial Hospital Aid Society is an organized community institution which accomplishes things—about 6000 separate and countable big and little things last year. All useful, new and needed things bought, made and delivered to our hospital as an aid to maintenance of high standards of care established and recognized. Hospital mending is separately cared for. Gauze is purchased by the hospital made up ready for use. Gauze manufacturers now supply ready-made dressings and sponges (machine made) at a price which amounts to 10¢ per day for the most skilled hand labor. Our efforts are worth many times any such false economy as 10¢ per day represents.

The Jameson Memorial Hospital Aid Society is a large public contact for its hospital; its members do enjoy the social contacts, of its weekly meetings of organized planned work to supply an indispensable need. Share our pleasure. JOIN.

Steel Industry Past Low Point

Steel Officials Do Not Believe Steel Will Hit Low Level Again

PRODUCTION NOW
NEAR 40 PER CENT

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, May 11.—The steel industry has passed the low point and it is not going back to the low levels which prevailed two months ago, Ernest T. Weir, chairman of the board of National Steel Corporation, said Wednesday.
Weir's pronouncement came as a summation of the beliefs of steel leaders of the Pittsburgh district. The steel official said:
"We are past the low point.
"While I cannot say how long the upward swing in steel activity is to continue, it is safe to say that the industry is not going back to the low levels which prevailed two months ago.
"Orders are coming from a wide range of buyers. The expansion in sales has not been due to any one type of consumer. Buyers are not storing steel, they are using it.
"Steel production at present is close to 40 per cent."

Scheffler Will Is Upheld By Court

Contest Brought By Rev. W. V. Stanczewski Is Decided By Judge Chambers

Contest over the will of the late Joseph Scheffler was ended Wednesday when Judge James A. Chambers handed down a decision in which he directed that he will be admitted to probate.

Scheffler died in August, 1932, leaving a will in which Alex Kulik was named as executor. The will was drawn on August 7th, 1932 and was witnessed by Joe Zazoc and John McMurtre. Scheffler signed by mark, and the mark was witnessed by Alderman Lee Cooper.

In the will Scheffler left all his property, real and mixed, to Mike Gorski. Rev. W. V. Stanczewski objected to the probating of the will on the grounds that Scheffler had been adjudged incompetent to look after his estate and he had been appointed guardian sometime previous to the making of the will and that a former will had been made leaving the property to St. Philip and St. James church.

Testimony which was taken before Register and Recorder Jeannette Hutton, revealed that Rev. Stanczewski had been appointed guardian on the grounds that Scheffler was unable to look after his property. This raised the question of his competency to make the will which had been offered for probate.

The case was then taken into court. In his opinion Judge Chambers finds that the testimony showed that Scheffler was of sound mind at the time the will was offered for probate had been made. From the evidence it appeared that the guardian had been appointed, not because Scheffler was weak minded, but because he was weak physically.

Under the will which has now been probated Gorski will get the estate consisting of a couple of houses and some personal effects.

Farm-Inflation Bill Passed By Vote In Senate

Gigantic Farm Relief-Mortgage-Inflation Bill Goes To White House

ROOSEVELT WILL AFFIX SIGNATURE

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, May 11.—The administration's gigantic farm relief-mortgage-inflation bill, arming President Roosevelt with extraordinary powers to aid agriculture and industry, was finally enacted by Congress Wednesday when the senate approved the conference report.

The last step was taken when the senate agreed to abandon the Simpson plan, authorizing the government to fix farm prices at a level high enough to guarantee the farmers their cost of production plus a reasonable profit. This plan was rejected by the house last week.

The huge bill, which carried a "rider" authorizing inflation of the currency now goes to the White House for the president's signature.

Administration leaders adopted strange procedure to pass the bill. First, they secured approval of the conference report, with the Simpson plan excluded, by a vote of 53 to 28. Then the Simpson plan was abandoned formally by a vote of 48 to 33. By its second vote, the senate formally passed the bill—but the actual roll call on passing it was the first vote.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 11.—Representative J. Howard Swick this week voted against the senate amendment to the farm bill which would authorize the secretary of agriculture to fix the price of agricultural commodities.

Opposed by the administration, the senate amendment was rejected by the house. Representative Cochran of Mercer joined with Mr. Swick in voting against it. In the senate, Senator David A. Reed had voted against it when that body approved the amendment.

ST. VITUS CHURCH EVENT DRAWS LARGE CROWD

Annual Dinner And Dance Event

Eleven Hundred Take Part In Fine Program At The Cathedral Last Night

SPAGHETTI DINNER FEATURES PROGRAM

All New Castle appeared to be participating in the gala event, the seventeenth annual spaghetti dinner and dance of St. Vitus Parish, held Wednesday evening in the dining room and ballroom of the Cathedral. More than eleven hundred persons enjoyed the excellent dinner consisting of various foods including spaghetti prepared and served in true Italian style.

It was one of the outstanding social events of the season and again reflected much credit to the members of St. Vitus Parish and the Italian population of the city.

Dinner was served from 5:30 to 8 p. m., while dancing was the diversion from 9 to 12 o'clock, midnight. The affair was carried out with success and those in charge deserve great credit for the pleasant evening that all so fortunate as to be present, had the opportunity of enjoying.

During the entire period of the dinner, music was furnished by an orchestra directed by Anthony Coppie and a group of special entertainers and the program presented was most enjoyable.

Special Entertainment
The special entertainers were Miss Isabella Razzano, coloratura soprano, Miss Yolanda Lombard, accordionist, Mrs. Austin Gillen, pianist and Carl Pezzenti, violinist.

The program presented follows:—Accordian selection, Miss Yolanda Lombard; vocal selection, "Estrellita"—Ponce, Miss Isabella Razzano accompanied by Carl Pezzenti; violin solo, "Mighty Lak A Rose"—Nevin, Carl Pezzenti; vocal selection, "Take Me In Your Arms"—Gerahwin, Miss Isabella Razzano; piano selection, Miss Mary McGinty; violin selection, "The Swan"—Saintsaens, Carl Pezzenti; accordian selection, Miss Yolanda Lombard.

The success of the affair was due to the untiring efforts of the Rev. Fr. N. DeMita, pastor of St. Vitus Parish, and the various chairman, committeemen and ladies of the parish who prepared and served the dinner.

The general chairman of the very successful affair was Frank C. Summers, while his very able assistant was Carm Sacco. The ladies in charge of the kitchen were Mrs. Mary Biondi and Mrs. Amelia Gebbia, while those in charge of the large and efficient group of young women serving the tables were Mrs. Mary Conti and Mrs. Lena Ciallella.

The members of the general committee were Gabriel Armando, Joe Bordonaro, B. J. Biondi, Ludwig Calazza, Angelo Casacchia, Anthony Carbon, Frank Casimiri, P. P. Caputo, William Chilli, Charles DeCarbo, Jacob DePonso, John DiLorenzo, Mike Fazzone, Humbert Fazzone, Charles Fregeli, Dominic Guido, Antonio Iannuccelli, Attorney Joseph Leta, Anthony Marino, Dr. John Piroletti, Sam Peluso, Sam Ross, Carm Sacco, Alfonso Scarazzo, E. H. Scarazzo, Joe Tomasello, Andy Venditto, Anthony Villani, D. D. Valensi.

Girl Drowns In Chartiers Creek

Death Ends Picnic Outing Of Three Little Carnegie,
Pa., Girls

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, May 11.—An early picnic outing of three little Carnegie girls has ended disastrously today following the death of four year old Ruth Young, who slipped from a rope swing into Muddy Chartiers creek and drowned.

Ruth was carried half a mile downstream by the swift current before she was pulled out by James Aspel, 28, a Heidelberg fireman who leaped 70 feet from the old Heidelberg bridge into the creek when he saw the girl's body. Rescue squads worked two hours to revive the girl without success.

Asks Permission To Remove Tree

Representing a group of mushroom players, Audley Henderson appeared before the New Castle school board Wednesday night asking permission to remove a dead tree which is on the property line of the school board on Ross avenue. S. G. Lago superintendent of buildings and grounds, was instructed to look at the tree and if it is dead, to notify Mr. Henderson that it is proper to remove it.

The art of soldering tin and copper was discovered in the 11th century.

School Board Asks State Permission To Make Salary Changes

Upon motion of Director Roy W. Hazen, the New Castle school board on Wednesday night voted to request the department of public instruction to permit the board to suspend the added increments due teachers in the schools for next year and to permit a reduction of salaries below the ten per cent reduction already permitted by house bill 1374. Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools, was authorized to make the request of Dr. James N. Rule, state superintendent.

In his remarks on the motion Mr. Hazen explained that the budget for the coming year had been built with the idea of having a 20 per cent reduction in teachers salaries either by voluntary contribution or by permissive legislation. The act passed by the general assembly permits a ten per cent reduction by the board but further reductions must be permitted by the department. Any other changes or suspensions in existing law are permitted only by the state superintendent.

Until some definite word is received from the department in the matter teachers' contracts will not be renewed. Sixty-three days before the end of the school term the board cancelled all contracts, because of some restrictive legislation which was pending. When and if the department permits the reductions asked for it is probable that all contracts will be renewed.

Makes Complaint On Tax Penalty

School Director A. C. Hyde presented a complaint of A. Masters to the school board Wednesday night in which Mr. Masters believes he was overcharged on a tax penalty. Mr. Masters had told Mr. Hyde that he went to the city treasurer's office to pay his taxes before May 1, but was informed that they had been filed in the office of the county commissioners. He then went to the court house and paid them under protest. The point at issue is whether or not he should have had to pay the penalty before May 1. The matter was referred to the board solicitor, Attorney William J. Moffatt.

SHANNON NAMED RESERVE MAJOR

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 11.—President Roosevelt today has sent the nomination of Major General Edward C. Shannon of the Pennsylvania National Guards to the senate for confirmation as a major general in the Reserve Corps.

SPRING FEVER may not put you in bed

...but if you feel listless, tired, run-down, appetite dull, with a weak let-down feeling—perhaps nervous and worn out—why not "snap out" of this condition? Tune up your appetite, increase those red-blood-cells, and get in step with those who put zip and pep into everything they do—the best way to be happy and cheerful.

There is a good old medicine, S.S.S.—tested both by time and by scientific research, which in addition to being a valuable general tonic, has been found to be remarkably efficient in restoring to the blood the normal amount of red-blood-cells and their hemoglobin. ...if you suspect an organic disease, consult a physician. S.S.S. is not a "cure-all" BUT for a pimply skin and that tired, worn-out, let-down feeling—"spring fever" just try S.S.S. and see how you awake after a night's sound sleep feeling fresh and fine. —and see how you eat with restored appetite... see how your skin clears up.

Instead of slowing down in the early afternoon, you should possess ample energy to carry on thru the day and evening hours. S.S.S. is a particularly valuable tonic in the Spring of the year. It is liquid of course... never sold in tablet form.

...as a word of caution to the millions who know S.S.S. and its benefits from personal experience, we suggest that you do not permit anyone to switch you to any of the hundreds of "just as good as S.S.S." substitutes. Remember that successful products are always imitated, but it seldom pays to buy imitations—insist upon S.S.S. At all good drug stores. © The S. S. S. Co. (Adv.)

Film Stars Guard Offspring Against Kidnapers

PAPER HATS HELP STRETCH ELUSIVE DOLLARS

Every woman knows what a stimulating effect a new hat has on the inferiority complex of these days when finances are low. Well, here's cheerful news. Hats are being made out of paper, and crocheted by hand, so that they help stretch those elusive dollars to cover the head, at any rate. One fold of paper cut into half-inch strips is sufficient to make any hat. Just stretch and twist the strips slightly and crochet as you would with thread or yarn. The sketch shows three of these hats of paper, the fez, lower left; the peak, top right, and the sailor, top left. A hat of the latest imported straw is shown lower right. Center, a suit of diagonal woolen in strawberry pink on a pink and white ground. The bell hop type hat matches the color of the frock, with pompom trimming.

Coontz Opposed To Bonus March

Head Of Veterans Of Foreign Wars Believes Movement Communist

URGES POSTS TO DISCOURAGE MOVE

Definite opposition to a proposed "bonus march" to Washington has been voiced by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States in a statement issued by Commander-in-Chief Admiral Robert E. Coontz addressed to all state department, county council and post commanders. The message received by Commander A. F. Miller of the McBride Post here, reads as follows: "According to press reports, Communists are endeavoring to organize another 'bonus march' to Washington. They are trying to involve veterans in the movement but the real motive is to cause trouble. Their ultimate objective is revolution and the overthrow of the government of the United States. "Concentration of veterans or other groups in Washington at this time will be dangerous to the welfare of the nation and detrimental in every way to the cause of veterans as a whole. Veterans who take part in any so-called 'bonus march' or any kind of march on Washington now will absolutely destroy existing prospects in Congress for any consideration of the bill for immediate cash payment of adjusted service certificates. "As Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, I ask every officer and member of our great organization to refrain from taking part in any movement of this nature. I call upon all members to strenuously discourage others from participating in any proposed mobilization at the nation's capital. Revolutionary tactics as advocated by the Communists back of this proposed new march on Washington are un-American in spirit and in violation of the ideals and principles of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

Relief Problem Not For Few To Solve State Woman Says

Miss Kersey Tells Kiwanians Community Must Enlist Full Support

Describing relief work as community problem and not one to be met by certain individual groups, Miss Helen Kersey, Harrisburg, emissary for Pennsylvania's State Emergency Relief board, on Wednesday sought the full backing of the Kiwanis club when she spoke to its members. Her message was heard at The Castle-ton.

President Norman E. Clark assured Miss Kersey of the club's support following the enlightening address.

Dr. G. S. Bennett, chairman of the Lawrence County Emergency Relief board, sponsors of Miss Kersey's visit here, introduced her.

The Kiwanians heard reviewed the high spots of relief work locally and listened to Miss Kersey praise the community for "the fine spirit that prevails among the people here." She emphasized the point that cooperation was evident on all sides.

Early in her address Miss Kersey reviewed Pennsylvania's initial steps to secure federal aid for the unemployed. It was recalled that the federal grant was withheld until Pennsylvania legislators "went the limit" after which the money was appropriated with the understanding that it be spent for food.

Miss Kersey urged the Kiwanians to help along that part of the relief work that helps to build a strong morale among the unemployed.

A number of guests were present. "Bartary was the name, in the middle ages, applied to the central part of Eurasia.

Union High Floor Teams Banqueted

Over 200 Present At Recognition Dinner In Union High Gym

Fine Program Given; Coach D. M. Boyd Acts As Toastmaster

Another of those delightful basketball banquets was enjoyed at Union High School gym last evening when the Union A. A. members extended the girls and boys varsity basketball teams at Union a delicious chicken and biscuit dinner. There were over 200 present. The event goes down as one of the finest ever held in the school.

Boyd Toastmaster
Coach David M. Boyd acted as the toastmaster after the chicken and biscuits had been properly enjoyed and digested and after a few clever introductory remarks opened the program with song and dance by Betty Buchanan and Dorothy McCarty, with Miss Catherine Elder assisting at the piano.

The girls varsity coach Sarah Louder was the first speaker and gave a fine talk, outlining the season in brief and complimenting the girls on their fine record the past season. She also presented the honorary captain for the 1932-33 season, Miss Ann Raymond, the clever side-center on the girls team. Miss Raymond responded with a short and well delivered talk.

Season Reviewed
Ruby Wheaton next offered a clever song and was followed by an encore. Junior Rankin next delighted with a song and was also followed by another one. He was assisted at the piano by Joe Moore, Coach D. M. Boyd, the popular Union High coach next gave a fine talk, in which he outlined the basketball season from start to finish and although he thinks that Union could have done better, he complimented the boys on the winning of Section 18 of the W. P. I. A. A. and for their fine game against New Castle High. Boyd said that Union High hopes to have a bigger and better team next season and that they are going after the Section 18 title again and possibly the championship of the W. P. I. A. A. Boyd introduced Ralph Phillips who was elected as honorary captain for the 1932-33 season.

Betty Buchanan and Dorothy McCarty offered another dance. These girls are mighty clever and their act was thoroughly enjoyed. Don Hoffmaster, a musician was the last act on the program and his many tricks kept the assemblage mystified.

Orrs Win From Brent Miners

Sewatka Poles Three Hits And Plays Fast Game At Short

SCHASS KEEPS HITS SCATTERED

Orrs defeated Brent on the Lehigh field 7 to 3 in a National division, Lawrence circuit game yesterday. Schass bore down in the tight holes and was in the danger zone only in the second frame.

First Baseman Rech of the Orrs came through with two hits, one of which was a triple while Sewatka, shortstop for the Miners, caressed the pail for a double. In all the husky Brentonian came through with three hits.

Sewatka played a good game at short and handled several hard plays without an error. Shaw made a spectacular catch with two down in the sixth and two runners on bases.

Orrs and the Monarchs will play off a postponed game at 6:30 p. m. today on the Lehigh field.

Yanks, Cleveland, Senators And Chicago Fight For Lead

Gomes Is Chased Again, Sad Sam Jones Fans Ruth Twice And Gehrig Once

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service

NEW YORK, May 11.—The American League pennant race which up to a fortnight ago looked to be a walkover for the world's champion New York Yankees, may yet develop into a red-hot five-cornered scramble.

As a result of a 10 to 2 drubbing by the rejuvenated White Sox yesterday, their worst defeat of the year, the Yanks were tied for first place today with the Cleveland Indians, who beat Boston. Previously New York had enjoyed undisputed possession of the lead since April 17.

Race Is Close
Only one game separates the leaders and the fourth-place White Sox. The Senators, in the third slot, are half a game behind the leaders and a like distance ahead of Chicago.

The Athletics, handicapped by the loss of three stars and a slow start by their best pitchers, Grove and Earnshaw, took fifth place yesterday by beating Detroit twice and may soon join the dog fight.

The Yanks have dropped four out of seven games in the west. Senior El Goetz Gomez, the blushing bridegroom, who was expected to be their big winner again this year, is an in-and-out. The slender southpaw has been knocked out of the box in three of his six starts. A week ago he held Detroit hitless until the ninth inning. Yesterday he lasted less than two innings against Chicago.

Fans Ruth Twice
While Gomez and two other Yank hurlers were being nipped for 14 hits, the champions were held to six blows by an ex-colleague, Sad Sam Jones, 40-year-old vet playing his 20th season in the majors. The old master fanned Ruth twice and Gehrig once.

With the aid of three errors by the Boston infield, Willis Hudlin of Cleveland grabbed a 4 to 2 decision over Lefty Weiland of the Red Sox. Boston flopped back into the cellar, which the Browns vacated by blanking Washington 5 to 0. After being held to two hits by Earl Whitehill in the first seven innings, the Browns bunched four hits with two passes and an error to score all their runs in the eighth. George Blaeholder hung up his fourth win in five starts for St. Louis.

Macks Win Two
"Sugar" Cain and Rube Walberg pitched the A's to their double win over Detroit, 3 to 2 and 6 to 4. Bob Johnson's homer won the opener. The Mackmen sewed up the nightcap with a three-run rally in the eighth inning, which drove Vic Sorrell to the showers.

Chuck Klein of the Phillies, leading all-around slugger of the National League in 1932, had a field day in a twin bill with Cincinnati. He cracked three homers, driving in five runs and took the lead in the National League home run derby.

Klein's slugging was wasted, however, as far as the Phillies were concerned. They lost both games, 10 to 7 and 4 to 3. The Reds jumped to fourth place.

All other National League games were washed out.

So Far 53 Games Have Been Postponed On Account Of Rain And Cold Weather

CHICAGO, May 11.—With 53 major league baseball games forced into the double-header hopper by rain and cold weather, President Harbridge of the American League today said the pile-up was the worst in his memory.

Mahoning Wins From Volant

Hutnic Holds Volant Hitless For The First Five Frames

VOLANT'S RALLY COMES TOO LATE

Steve Hutnic hurled hitless ball for five innings yesterday and, aided by opportune hitting by Mahoning, gave Nick Cange's aggregation a 6 to 4 victory over Volant in the National loop of the Lawrence county league.

Hutnic, a veteran of many seasons, held the Rurals at his mercy for the first five frames while his teammates hit opportunely and had chalked up four runs. After Volant found the range it was too late to deadlock the score in seven frames.

Lefty Miller, Volant hurler, allowed only eight hits. The longest clout of the E. & A. field hit was a two-run swat by Grim. Orlando ran the bases well and got away with two stolen bases while First Baseman Shaffer of Volant stole one.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Primo Carnera, Italian heavyweight who meets Jack Sharkey for the world's championship June 29, arrives here from Italy today.

HOLLYWOOD, May 11.—Ruth Elder, famous aviatrix, today entered a boat in the special motor boat race for women in connection with the reatata at Lake Los Angeles Sunday, she announced today.

To start with he nailed the Tiger on the jaw in the first round and had Tiger clawing on the floor when the bell ended it. He rolled the Tiger once again after which Robinson went down without being hit. He was groggy when the gong sounded.

The Tiger kept swinging in the third but his swings wrapped around Morini's neck while Custi pumped punches to the stomach and chin. The Tiger was weak when the final bell sounded and the verdict was cheered.

George Rocco Trims Cereer

Thousand Fans See Eight Good Amateur Bouts At Ellwood City

PETE BOY AND MORINI WIN BOUTS

(Special To The News.)
ELLWOOD CITY, May 11.—It looks very much as though it may not be long until Ellwood City will be able to sit up and shout about another Rocco, this particular Rocco being no other than George, 152-pound brother of Emmett, the heavyweight. He came through in a blasting way last night when he battered Louie Cereer, 162, Pittsburgh, in a three-round main bout of the amateur fistic show at the Shelby Social Club, Ellwood City.

When the fight started there were many who thought that the 10-pound advantage would bother George, but it didn't. Instead he sailed into Louie and finding that Louie toted his chin high as a flag he promptly went to work to nail it.

Takes Lacing.
And nail it he did. In fact he had Louie on Queer Street in the early round. Cereer reeled on one or more occasions. Twice the Pittsburgher hit Rocco low but George didn't take notice to this, except to fight more strenuously and in the third chapter he battered Cereer from pillar to post.

Had Louie not clung to the Ellwood Citian George today would be the possessor of a knockout. There wasn't a voice raised but following the show there were a lot of folk who were willing to bet that with polish and experience George Rocco will go somewhere pugilistically.

Custi Looks Good.
Custini Morini, 140, Ellwood City, looked like the berries when he tamed Tiger Robinson, 140, of Beaver Falls. In fact the Ellwood kid showed a lot of dash and pep.

He forced the boxing, landed the hardest and most punches and won by a fat margin.

To start with he nailed the Tiger on the jaw in the first round and had Tiger clawing on the floor when the bell ended it. He rolled the Tiger once again after which Robinson went down without being hit. He was groggy when the gong sounded.

The Tiger kept swinging in the third but his swings wrapped around Morini's neck while Custi pumped punches to the stomach and chin. The Tiger was weak when the final bell sounded and the verdict was cheered.

Beats Southpaw.
The Ray Atkinson, 147, Ellwood

The officials were: Referee, George Chip, New Castle; judges, Earl Smith, Beaver Falls, and J. J. Dougherty, Ellwood City; timekeepers, Doc Kellner and Tom Newman, Ellwood City; commission deputy, B. J. Biondi, New Castle. Joe Latiano made the matches for the club.

Cubs Are Seeking Services Of Klein

By DAVIS J. WALSH

International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, May 11.—It may interest Chicago ball fans to know that their Mr. Grimm is about to make a play, either today or tomorrow, for the services of Chuck Klein, the five-star, 100-proof, uncut tincture of violence from Philadelphia.

It certainly will interest Mr. Nugent and Mr. Shotton of Philadelphia, who don't know yet that they are to be approached, and won't until they read this. After restoratives are applied they'll be sent quietly to their homes.

Nevertheless, the Cubs are ready to go high for the young man, with a good outfielder and a promising pitcher or infielder or both as the convincer.

"Plenty of window dressing" is the word. They'll need it. All Mr. Klein did yesterday was hit three home runs and drive in five of the seven runs in the opening game. Imagine his mortification when somebody else drove in the other two.

However, it is intimated that the Cubs might go as far as Charley Root, the pitcher, as one part of the bid, and as high as Babe Herman, the outfielder, as another. Mr. Herman has his moments out there, but at times his antics are far from a comfort to the plaintiff, managerial gaze. In fact, when they made Mr. Herman they more than broke the mould. They ground it into cracker dust.

Besides, the gentleman isn't hitting the size of his sock and, according to Chicago players, already has blown four ball games in the field. That will hardly recommend him to Philadelphia, so maybe the Cubs will come with a handful of cash by way of emphasis and for good measure.

The cash may do it. If it doesn't, Chicago may wind up with a lefthand pitcher, possibly Roy Hansen or Jim Elliott, provided Shotton is of a mind to make a dicker. He ought to be. The way they're going now the Phillies won't finish until late October.

As a matter of fact, practically everybody in both leagues is ready to listen to reason, owing to the fact that Monday next is the deadline for trades and player limits. So, right at this time, they either must improve the hand or play what they have.

In line with this idea there was a story around today that George Earnshaw of the Athletics is on his way to the Boston Red Sox, although just how this will improve the hand of Mr. Cornelius Mac remains to be seen. However, they say that, if consummated, it will be a straight player-cash transaction, which may come under the head of improvement. At least, I suspect that Mr. Mack is liable to think so.

COMMODITIES ARE MOST SPECTACULAR

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, May 11.—The stock market boomed 1 to nearly 3 points to new highs for the year today in tremendous trading.

Commodities were more spectacular than stocks. Wheat soared cents a bushel on the bullish government crop report. Cotton spurted $1 a bale and other staples were up sharply.

Bonds were strong, speculative issues scoring substantial gains and the gilt-edged list displaying a firm tone. The dollar was lower against foreign currencies but price changes were small.

Gold and copper shares were better but failed to respond as easily as the rest.

The rails set a fast pace with virtually every carrier stock going to a new high for the year. Utilities were strong. U. S. Steel was better but met stern resistance at the 50-level and backed away. Allied Chemical was up sharply. General Motors continued in enormous demand while farm stocks spurted with grains.

Want New Flag Pole At The Court House

County Commissioners have been asked to erect a suitable flag pole at the court house.

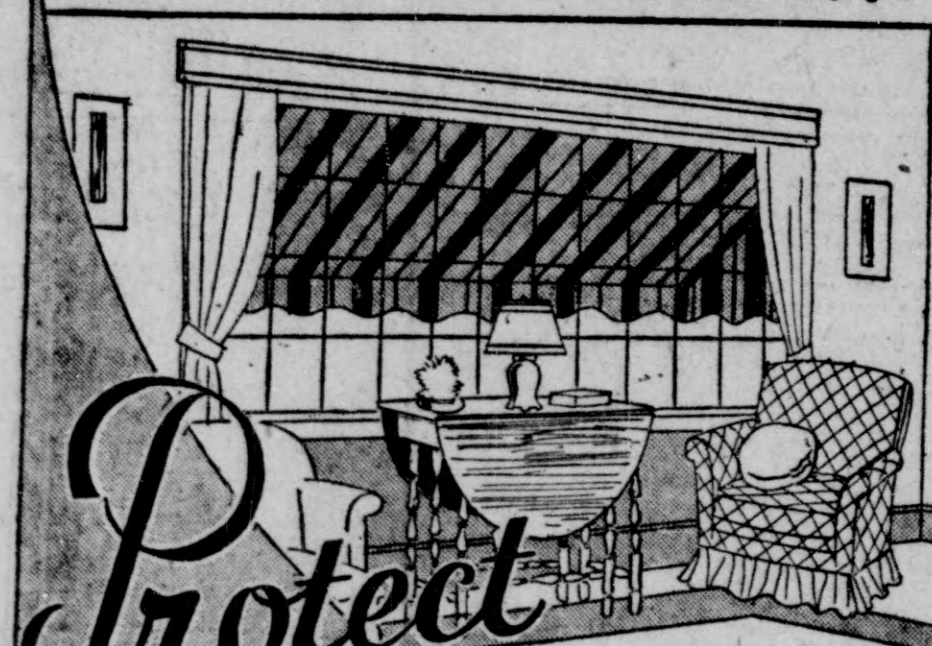

Heretofore it has been the custom to display flags from the belfry of the court house but the pole has not been very satisfactory, and a larger one is needed.

Some of the soldier organizations want the commissioners to erect a steel pole on the court house lawn. Figures are being secured to see what such a pole would cost. It is claimed that there is no very good place to anchor a wooden pole on the belfry, since the timbers are getting old.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

If all the spaghetti consumed last night in the Cathedral was laid end to end you would be a long way from making ends meet. Unless you used some of the meat balls they served with the starchy delicacy. Some kind of a record for spaghetti winding was set up with a number of claimant for heat records.

Everybody who was somebody or wanted to be somebody was there, and the list of patrons looked like a Who's Who. From 5:30 until 8 o'clock they served spaghetti and more spaghetti and the total crop consumed would represent about an acre and a half of spaghetti trees.

Bob McCaslin, the county controller, found that controlling the sauce from the spaghetti is much harder than controlling the county's finances. Mac claims that some smart fellow could make a lot of money by inventing a splashboard to catch the back lash of tomato sauce. He and Clint White were entered from New Wilmington as competitors in the winding contest.

Got a little help in the column today from a fellow journalist, who is affiliated with the Shenango Review. The Shenango Review by the way is the official paper of the Shenango township high school and a good paper, if you care to know. The only difficulty about the contribution is that it isn't signed.

His contribution is that George Lechner and Bud Baldwin are planning a western trip this summer in the interests of Nature study. They expect to leave around June 1 for Carson City, Nev., where they will take a six weeks' nature study course and from there drift on east to the World's Fair.

Enroute they expect to study the rock formations and the surface of the earth at various points. After which, if they want a suggestion, they can take a look at the Slippery Rock valley and tell us what the geological story is that is written in the rocks out there.

This sounds like one of those tall stories, but John Rung of Lakewood is responsible for it, and if you know John you'll agree he isn't in the habit of kidding reporters. Especially after a hail storm has just made the roofs of his buildings look like a screen door.

Just after the hail storm on Tuesday night, a couple drove up into the park area. They were just out for a little drive and a little drink, according to John. They had the makings of a highball, but needed some ice cubes.

"Can we get any ice?" they asked John. Thinking they were trying to kill him after all the ice in the western hemisphere had hit his buildings in the nose, he replied: "Get out and look on the ground, you'll get all the ice you need."

The payoff is that they actually did get out, pick up some of the hail stones and proceed to cool a couple of tall ones with it. Probably the first highball in Lakewood to be cooled with hailstones.

NICE CATCH

W. H. Thompson of Market street reports a nice catch on Monday morning in the waters of Little Ne-shannock when he landed a beautiful 14-inch brook trout. This is the largest size of any trout hauled from the waters around this vicinity this season, although several 12 and 13 inches have been landed. Thompson is perhaps one of the most expert fishermen in this vicinity and has furthered his reputation this year by hauling 19 nice trout from the water on the first day of the new season.

PASTOR RETURNS

The Rev. J. Ralph Neale, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, has returned home after a two weeks' visit of United Presbyterian colleges around this district. He visited Sterling, Monmouth and Tarkio colleges and reports an interesting time. Dr. Neale is closely associated with young people's work, being chairman of a national council of the church which looks forward to contact with the younger element.

BOY IS INJURED AT CROTON PLAYGROUND

Robert Graham, aged 10 years, of 319 North Cascade street, was brought to the Jameson Memorial hospital suffering from minor injuries sustained when he fell at the Croton playground, around 8:30. He was able to return to his home after the injuries were dressed.
